GARDENER - STRATTON MEMORIAL GARDEN

A position has become available for a gardener for the Stratton Memorial Garden and Burial Facility, off Long Hide in Princes Risborough.

The post would involve the successful candidate working 15 hours weekly on the maintenance of the shrubs and plants located on the site, weeding the flower beds, pruning and trimming plants as necessary and cutting the grass to keep the area up to the required standard.

During dry periods the candidate would also be responsible for watering the area to ensure that all plants are able to survive.

The successful candidate should be aware as to the Health and Safety requirements of lone working.

This position is suitable for any person able to show that they understand the basic needs of gardening and horticulture.

Basic tools will be provided, which can be safely stored on site.

The successful candidate must be aware of the sensitive nature of working in such an environment and should be prepared to assist members of the public as necessary.

The role will also support our Maintenance Team and maybe subject to additional responsibilities.

The Princes Risborough Town Council is an equal opportunities employer and all applications will be considered.
