

Princes Risborough Town Council
Grievance Procedure
Reviewed and Adopted 27th March 2018

1. The grievance procedure enables the Company to ensure that any problems, complaints or concerns raised by employees are dealt with in a fair, timely and consistent manner. If an employee has a grievance or complaint regarding:
 - 1.1 their work, working conditions, pay and benefits, working hours; or
 - 1.2 discrimination on the grounds of race, sex, sexual orientation, religion, disability, age, gender reassignment, marital status or ethnic origin; or
 - 1.3 treatment by colleagues including harassment and bullying; or
 - 1.4 their health and safety or a breach of statutory employment rights; or
 - 1.5 any other issue affecting their employment it should be raised in line with this procedure.

2. Informal Procedure
 - 2.1 Employees should, where possible, discuss the grievance or complaint with their immediate manager on an informal basis first. The manager will discuss any concerns with the employee and attempt to resolve the matter within a reasonable timescale. Where it is not possible for the employee to talk to their immediate manager, or if the grievance concerns him or her, the employee should instead talk to the next most senior person or the HR manager.
 - 2.2 Where the informal procedure is used, both parties should keep a written record of the meeting including what was discussed and any proposed action.
 - 2.3 If the grievance has not been resolved or cannot be settled informally, the matter should be dealt with according to the formal grievance procedure.

3. Formal Grievance Procedure:
 - 3.1 Stage 1 - Written Statement
 - 3.1.1 The aggrieved employee must first send a written statement detailing the nature of the grievance to the Clerk without unreasonable delay.
 - 3.1.2 Where it is the appropriate manager who is the subject of the Grievance, the employee should instead send the written statement to another manager of equal or greater seniority, where possible.
 - 3.2 Stage 2 - Grievance Meeting

- 3.2.1 Upon receiving the written statement the appropriate manager will arrange for a formal meeting to be held in order to discuss the grievance. The formal meeting will be held without unreasonable delay and usually no longer than 5 working days after the statement of grievance is received.
 - 3.2.2 The meeting must not take place if the appropriate manager has not had a reasonable opportunity to consider their response to the information.
 - 3.2.3 The employer should establish the facts by collecting documents, identify any relevant people to interview and take statements before memories start to fade. Any requests for anonymity and confidentiality should be taken seriously.
 - 3.2.4 The employee may, following a reasonable request, be accompanied by a colleague, a suitably certified trade union representative or an official employed by a trade union. The companion may not, however, answer questions on behalf of the employee.
 - 3.2.5 The employees chosen companion will be able to address the meeting to put or sum up the employees case as well as confer with the employee during the meeting. They may not, however, answer questions on the employees' behalf, address the meeting if the employee does not wish them to do so or prevent the Company from explaining their case.
 - 3.2.6 The appropriate manager, employee and their companions shall make every effort to attend the meeting.
 - 3.2.7 If possible the employee should explain how they think the grievance could be resolved.
 - 3.2.8 If a full investigation of the matter is required then the meeting should be adjourned to a later date before a decision is taken about how to deal with the employee's grievance.
- 3.3 Stage 3 - Outcome of meeting
- 3.3.1 Following the meeting and investigation and without unreasonable delay the appropriate manager shall set out in writing the action they intend to be take in order to resolve the grievance (if appropriate).
 - 3.3.2 The appropriate manager shall also inform the employee of their right to appeal if they are not satisfied with the action taken.
 - 3.3.3 Any action taken shall be monitored and reviewed, as appropriate, to ensure it effectively deals with the issue.
- 3.4 Stage 4 - Appeal
- 3.4.1 Employees have the right to appeal where they feel their grievance has not been satisfactorily resolved.

- 3.4.2 The request for an appeal must state the grounds for the appeal and should be submitted to the appropriate manager in writing within 5 working days of receiving written confirmation as to the outcome of the grievance meeting.
- 3.4.3 The appropriate manager will arrange a further meeting to discuss the appeal within a reasonable time of receiving the request for an appeal. The employee will be informed of the time and place of the appeal in advance.
- 3.4.4 The appeal will be dealt with impartially and, wherever possible, will be chaired by a manager who has not previously been involved in the case and is of increased seniority to the one who dealt with the original grievance.
- 3.4.5 The employee has the right to be accompanied at the appeal meeting and the outcome of the appeal meeting shall be communicated to the employee in writing within 5 working days. Decisions made at this point are final and the grievance procedure is concluded.

4. Confidentiality

- 4.1 Grievances will be handled with as high a degree of confidentiality as is practicable.
- 4.2 Confidential records of the grievance will be kept in the employee's personnel file in accordance with Data Protection legislation. Copies of meeting notes will be provided to the employee, although the Company reserves the right to withhold certain information (e.g. to protect a witness).

5. Special Cases

- 5.1 Where a grievance relates to a disciplinary matter, both can be dealt with concurrently.
- 5.2 Where a grievance is raised during the disciplinary process, the disciplinary process may be suspended so the grievance can be dealt with first.
- 5.3 The above procedure shall not be used for collective grievances.
- 5.4 [A separate procedure can be referred to for issues involving bullying, harassment or whistle blowing.]
