---	--	--

Introduction

This policy sets out the procedure to ensure there is compliance with legislation and continuity of procedures in the co-option of members to Princes Risborough Town Council. The co-option procedure is entirely managed by the Town Council, and this policy will ensure that a fair and equitable process is carried out.

1. Co-Option

The co-option of a parish councillor occurs in two instances:

When an ordinary vacancy has arisen on the Town Council after the ordinary elections held every four years, or when a casual vacancy has arisen on the Town Council and no poll (by-election) has been called.

A. Ordinary vacancy

An ordinary vacancy occurs when there are insufficient candidates to fill all the seats on the Town Council at the ordinary elections held every four years. Any candidates who were nominated are automatically elected to the Town Council and any remaining vacancies are known as "ordinary vacancies". Provided there are enough town councillors to constitute a quorum, the Town Council is generally able to co-opt a volunteer to fill the vacancies. In some cases, Buckinghamshire Council may intervene and make an appointment or order an election to fill the vacancies.

B. Casual Vacancy

i. A casual vacancy occurs when:

- A councillor fails to make his declaration of acceptance of office at the proper time;
- A councillor resigns;
- A councillor dies;
- A councillor becomes disqualified; or
- A councillor fails for six (6) months to attend meetings of a council committee or sub-committee or to attend as a representative of the council a meeting of an outside body.

ii The Town Council must notify Buckinghamshire Council of a casual vacancy and then advertise the vacancy and give electors for the parish the opportunity to request an election. This occurs when ten electors write to the Buckinghamshire Council stating that an election is requested.

iii. If a by-election is called, a polling station will be set up by Buckinghamshire Council and the people of the parish will be asked to go to the polls to vote for candidates who will have put themselves forward by way of a nomination paper. The Town Council will pay the costs of the election. The people of the parish have fourteen days (not including weekends, bank holidays, and other notable days), to claim the by-election. The Electoral Services Office of Buckinghamshire Council will advise the Clerk of the closing date.

iv. If more than one candidate is then nominated a by-election takes place. If only one candidate is put forward, they are duly elected without a ballot. If ten residents do not request a ballot within fourteen days of the vacancy notice being posted, as advised by the Electoral Services Office, the Town Council can co-opt.

2. Confirmation of Co-Option

A. On receipt of written confirmation from the Electoral Services Office that no by-election has been claimed, the casual vacancy can be filled by means of co-option. The Clerk will:

- Advertise the vacancy for four weeks or such other period as the Town Council may agree on the Town Council notice boards and website.
- Advise Buckinghamshire Council that the co-option policy has been instigated.

B. This procedure will also apply in the case of an ordinary vacancy where the Electoral Services Office has confirmed that there were insufficient nominations to fill all the seats but there are sufficient parish councillors elected to constitute a quorum.

3. Eligibility of Candidates

A. The Town Council can consider any person to fill a vacancy provided that:

- He/she is 18 years or over; and
- He/she is a British citizen or a qualifying Commonwealth citizen;

And at least one of the following apply:

- he/she is an elector for the Parish and continues to be an elector; or
- has resided in the Parish for the past twelve months or rented/tenanted land in the Parish; or
- has had his/her principal or only place of work in the Parish for the past twelve months; or
- has lived within three miles of the Parish for the past twelve months.

B. There are certain disqualifications for being a town councillor, of which the main are (see s80 of the Local Government Act 1972):

- holding a paid office or employment under the Town Council;
- bankruptcy;
- having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) of not less than three months, without the option of a fine during the preceding five years; or
- being disqualified under any enactment relating to corrupt or illegal electoral practices.

4. Applications

A. Candidates will be requested to:

- Attend at least one Town Council meeting as observers;

- Submit information about themselves, by way of completing a short application form (a copy of the application form is attached as Appendix A);
- Confirm their eligibility for the position of town councillor within the statutory rules, (a copy of the eligibility form is attached as Appendix B).

5. At the Co-Option Meeting

A. Candidates will be invited to attend an informal Co-Option meeting to meet the Town Councillors.

At the co-option meeting, candidates will be given five minutes maximum to introduce themselves to the Town Councillors (members), give information on their background and experience and explain why they wish to become a member of the Town Council.

B. At the next Town Council meeting the Town Council will proceed to a vote with each candidate being proposed and seconded by the councillors in attendance (as defined in the Standing Orders) and a vote by a show of hands (LGA 1972 Sch. 12. Para 13).

C. A recorded vote may be requested under Standing Order 8 to show whether each councillor present and voting, gave his/her vote for or against that question. Legislation does not provide for a proxy or postal vote.

D. For a candidate to be co-opted to the Town Council, it will be necessary for them to obtain an absolute majority of votes cast (50% + 1 of the votes available at the meeting). If there are more than two candidates and there is no candidate with an overall majority in the first round of voting the candidate with the least number of votes will drop out of the process. Each Councillor must vote if they have attended the informal Co-option meeting. The Chairman may only use their casting vote if two successive voting rounds are stalemated.

E. Further rounds of voting will then take place with the process repeated until a candidate has an absolute majority.

F. The co-opted candidate must sign a Declaration of Acceptance of Office, including a commitment to abide by the Town Council's Code of Conduct, before the next Town Council meeting. They may then assume office.

G. The Clerk will notify Buckinghamshire Council Electoral Services Office of the co-option of the new Town Councillor.

H. The co-opted Town Councillor will complete a Notification of Disclosable Pecuniary and Other Interests form which the Clerk will lodge with the Monitoring Officer at Buckinghamshire Council within 28 days of the co-option.

I. If insufficient candidates are co-opted, the process should continue, whereby the vacancies are again advertised.
