

Princes Risborough Town Council

Marking the Death of a Senior National Figure Procedure

Announcement / Flag flying

1. On receiving the formal announcement by Buckingham Palace or Downing Street of the Death of a senior national figure (known as Day D), the Town Mayor (or Deputy Mayor) authorises the Union Flag on Duke Street Garden to be lowered to half-mast immediately until 08:00hrs on the morning following the Funeral (D+10 for the Sovereign and D+8 for other senior members of the Royal family).
2. In the case of the death of the Sovereign, the day following the death will be Proclamation Day (the day when the new Sovereign is proclaimed). On Proclamation Day flags will, at the start of the day, be flying at half-mast. All flags will then be flown at Mast-head from 11:00hrs on D+1 to coincide with the reading of the Principal Proclamation and until 13:00hrs the following day (D+2).
3. Should it happen that between the day of death and the funeral the Flag Policy dictates that a flag should be flown e.g. Merchant Navy Day, Commonwealth Day, etc., those days will pass un-marked and the Union flag will continue to fly at half-mast as a symbol of National mourning.

Book of Condolence

4. A Book of condolence will be opened in St Mary's Church or other suitable location on the first working day after the death, normally available for signing during working hours only, but subject to public demand and the availability of staff or volunteers to supervise, out of normal hours too. Depending on anticipated demand two books may be needed. Books will be placed in a quiet place to afford those signing privacy and quiet reflection.

Table to be covered with suitable black cloth, supply of pens, printed announcement, photograph (as appropriate) and small flower arrangement to be placed next to the Book of Condolence.

5. Books of condolence must not be left unattended. A rota of staff members and volunteers will be drawn up to provide constant supervision. Staff to ensure adequate sheets are available and to discretely remove any pages that have been defaced or include offensive / questionable comments for later further assessment.
6. Press announcement and item published on the website. Include the official statement from Buckingham Palace and one from the Town Mayor. Provide link to Buckingham Palace e-book of Condolence (www.royal.gov.uk).
7. Books of condolence to be closed at the end of the day following the day of the funeral.
8. Books of condolence to be part of the Town Council's archives.

Letters of Condolence

9. The day after the State Funeral a letter of Condolence to be sent from the Council to the new Sovereign's Private Secretary (in the case of the Sovereign's death) and the Private Secretary of the deceased (for other senior members of the Royal Family).

Councillors / staff to be informed and announcement made via official media channels.
13. Wording of the Proclamation will be found on Buckingham Palace website www.royal.gov.uk. The High Sheriff (Lord Lieutenant's Office) will also have a copy.

19. Decision to be made by the Town Clerk in conjunction with the Town Mayor (or Deputy Mayor if Town Mayor not available) on any other marking of silence required.

Flowers

20. Residents / visitors may wish to leave flowers in St Mary's Church or at other suitable locations. The flowers will be moved to Stratton Memorial Garden or left in the location for a week after the funeral. (Some flexibility on timing of removal to be given to weather conditions and decision to remove flowers to be done with great sensitivity).

Timings

21. It is difficult to give definitive information on timings as it is almost impossible to anticipate every conceivable set of circumstances e.g. if the announcement of the death of the Sovereign or senior member of the Royal Family falls on a public holiday, Easter, Christmas, Remembrance Sunday, etc.
22. It is only when the announcement comes through from the first reading of the Proclamation at St. James's Palace that it will be possible to take a view and establish local timings.

Social Media and Websites

23. Ghost pages already prepared in the event of the death of the Sovereign or the Duke of Edinburgh, to be published on receipt the formal announcement.

Guidance

24. In the event of any dispute to be resolved / decision to be taken that is not covered by this procedure, reference should be made by the Town Clerk.

 Half-mast - the flag is flown two-thirds of the way up the flagpole with at least the height of the flag between the top of the flag and the top of the mast.
